

Earthquake Damage Assessment and Repair Guidelines

for Residential Wood-Frame Buildings,
Engineering Guidelines Volume 2

CEA Earthquake Damage Assessment (REDA) Engineering Guidelines Training was developed to help standardize the earthquake damage assessment process.

Training topics include:

- The latest seismic research
- Earthquake vulnerabilities common to houses
- Cosmetic vs. structurally significant damage
- Damage assessment techniques
- Earthquake-induced ground deformation
- Case studies

Interested in the REDA Engineering Training?

Use the QR code to register!

